TROUP, Celia

RI HERALD 11-17-67

MRS. CHARLES L. TROUP

Funeral services for Mrs. Celia Troup of 124 Modena Avenue, who died Nov. 11 after an illness of nine months, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The widow of Charles L. Troup, she was born in Russia, the daughter of the late Simon and Tillie (Rose) Shulman. She had lived in Providence for more than 50 years.

From 1940 to 1950 she and her husband operated Troup's Hardware, 1007 Smith Street, and for the last five years she worked for Dorette Novelty Company here until here illness last February. She did volunteer work at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Providence and was a Gray Lady of the American Red Cross. She was a member of Hadassah and the Zionist Organization of America.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Melvin Jacobson of Troy, N.Y.; a brother, Abraham I. Shulman of New York City; two sisters, Mrs. Etta Lightman and Mrs. Sarah Blanck, both of Providence, and two grandchildren.