MRS. LOUIS ULOFF

Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie Uloff, about 65, who collapsed and died Tuesday less than half an hour after a masked man had robbed the liquor store which her husband owned of $137 at gunpoint, were held Thursday at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The wife of Louis Uloff of 158 Sumter Street, she was treasurer of the Co-operative Liquor Store, Inc. Her husband has owned the company about 30 years.

Mrs. Uloff, a daughter of the late Marcus and Reva Bookbinder, had lived in Providence for 65 years, most of that time in the Elmwood section of the city.

She leaves her husband and two daughters, Mrs. Charles Miller and Mrs. Irving Beranbaum, both of Providence, and three grandchildren.

She was a charter and life member of the Jewish Consumptive Relief Society and a member of Temple Beth Israel, the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Miriam Hospital Association and the Montefiore Society.
