SHERRY WEBBER, 70, of Blackstone Boulevard, a vocational rehabilitation counselor and a disability determinations examiner for the Department of Human Services until she retired 15 years ago, died yesterday at the Philip Hulitar Hospice Inpatient Center. She was the wife of Dr. Banice Webber.

Born in Queens, N.Y., a daughter of the late Benjamin and Pauline (Reiter) Polan, she lived in Providence for 36 years and previously lived in New York. Mrs. Webber was a member of Temple Beth El and the Miriam Hospital Womens Auxiliary. She was a graduate of the College of New Jersey.

Besides her husband, she leaves a daughter, Susan Datto of Westchester, N.Y.; a step-son, Daniel Webber of Miami Beach, Fla.; a step-daughter, Rachel Ryser of Brooklyn, N.Y.; a sister, Beatrice Lewis of Queens; and four grandchildren. She was the stepmother of the late Joel B. Webber.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Temple Beth El, 70 Orchard Ave. Burial will be in Sons of Israel and David Cemetery, Reservoir Avenue.
