SELMA WEIL

CRANSTON — Selma Weil, 83, of 47 Parkman St. died October 11, 1989. She was the widow of Frederick Weil.

Born in Germany, a daughter of the late Joseph and Ida (Silberman) Hahn, she lived in Cranston for 40 years.

Mrs. Weil was a member of Temple Beth-El, its Sisterhood, the Miriam Hospital Ladies Auxiliary, the Jewish Home for the Aged and Self-Help.

She leaves a son, Steven Weil of Los Angeles, Calif.

The funeral service was private. Arrangements by the Max Sugarman Funeral Home, 458 Hope St., Providence.

PJ Journal 10-19-89

WEIL, SELMA