Burton D. Weinbaum

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. — Burton D. Weinbaum, 59, 408 Sheffield Q, the assistant director of policy making for the U.S. Civil Service Commission before retiring in 1982, died Aug. 25 at St Mary's Hospital.

Born in Providence, he was the son of Sara Levy of Providence and Florida, and the late Abraham D. Weinbaum.

He attended Brown University in 1949 and graduated from Boston Universty School of Law in 1954, where he was elected to the Law Review.

Mr. Weinbaum previously had worked for the U.S. Social Security Administration and he received the agency's highest honor award, the Commissioner's Citation.

Besides his mother, he leaves three daughters, Paula Weinbaum and Shari Jones, both of Maryland, and Army Capt. Diane Weinbaum of Tennessee; a son, Chet Weinbaum of Florida; two sisters Lois Levy of Maine and Irma Katz of Ohio, and a grandaughter.

A memorial service was held on Sept. 1 in Warwick.

PSB 9-4-91

WEINBAUM, BURTON D.