WEINBERG, HYMAN

1-7-03

HYMAN WEINBERG, 86, of Brockton, Mass., formerly of Providence, a retired store manager and retailer, died Sunday at Good Sammaritan Caritas Hospital, Brockton.

He was the husband of Jeanette (Mazo) Weinberg. Born in Wilkes Barre, Pa., a son of the late Harry and Deborah (Barezofsky) Weinberg, he had lived in Providence before moving to Brockton 30 years ago.

Mr. Weinberg had worked as store manager at the former Cherry & Webb department stores and had been in the retail fur business at Harry Weinberg Furs.

He was a member of Temple Israel, Brockton. He was an avid sports fan.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Barry Weinberg of Taunton and Norman Weinberg of Manchester, Tenn.; two brothers, Mark Weinberg of Providence and Paul Weinberg of East Greenwich; two sisters, Ida Fish of Pompano Beach, Fla., and Gussie Chase of Boca Raton, Fla; three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held today at 10:30 a.m. at Lincoln Park Cemetery, 1469 Post Rd., Warwick.
