RUTH (BERGER) WEINBERG, 86, of East Hill Drive, a former hairdresser, died Monday at Rhode Island Hospital, Providence.

She was the wife of the late Julius "Julie" Weinberg. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Abraham Leo and Fannie (Friedman) Berger, she had lived in Providence for many years before moving to Cranston 29 years ago.

She was a graduate of Hope High School and the Cosmetology School.

Mrs. Weinberg had been self-employed as a hairdresser and also had helped her late husband at his delicatessens, the former Star Deli and the former Julie's Deli.

She was a longtime volunteer at Rhode Island School for the Deaf and Providence Hebrew Day School.

Mrs. Weinberg was a former member of Temple Emanu-El and Torat Yisrael. She was a member of the True Sisters and the ORT.

She leaves a daughter, Sharon L. Yarlas of Cranston; two grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Ida Gerstein and Peter and Edmund Berger.

The funeral will be held today at 11 a.m. in the Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
