WEINER, Albert

ALBERT WEINER

Funeral services for Albert Weiner, 77, of 10 Harian Road, a prominent business and Jewish civic leader, who died Sunday after a two-month illness, were held the following day at Temple Emanu-El. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Mr. Weiner, the husband of Mrs. Esther (Rice) Weiner, was active in the field of metal specialties manufacturing for more than 50 years. He was the founder in 1927 of the Albert Manufacturing Company, and the Alwyn Case Company, and was an officer and director of Sprague Sales, a wholesale metal specialties firm, and of the Alco Realty Company.

Born in Russia on June 10, 1886, a son of the late Zelig and Hannah Weiner, he came to Providence 60 years ago.

Mr. Weiner was a former vice president of Temple Beth Israel and was a former member of the board of directors of Miriam Hospital, the Jewish Home for the Aged, Temple Emanu-El, and the General Jewish Committee. He was a member of the Touro Fraternal Association and the Providence Lodge of Elks.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Samuel Pressman, Mrs. E. Harold Dick and Mrs. Albert Lieberman, all of Providence; one son, Harold Weiner, with whom he was associated in business; one sister, Mrs. Ida Hirschberg of Detroit, 10 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
