WEINER
Louis

PJ 9-12-00

LOUIS J. "SHEETS" WEINER, 85, of Friendly Road, died Sunday at Steere House in Providence.

He was the husband of the late Sarah (Rosen) Weiner. Born in Providence, a son of the late Jacob and Bessie (Primack) Weiner, he lived in Cranston for 50 years.

He was the office manager of Union Local 57 for 15 years until his retirement. He had previously owned the former Half-hour Laundromat in the 1950s and 1960s, and later owned Louie's Liquor Store, both in Providence.

Mr. Weiner was a World War II Army veteran, serving in Okinawa. He was a member of Congregation Sons of Jacob Synagogue, the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association and Local 57 of Operating Engineers. He was past commander of Post 533 of the Jewish War Veterans. He was part-owner of the former Providence Steamrollers, past president of the Rhode Island Little League Association, and organizer and founder of the Fox Point Little League. He was an organizer of the Superior Bakery "Over 50" softball team.

Mr. Weiner was an avid Providence College baseball fan and traveled for over 20 years with the team.

He leaves two daughters, Deborah Weiner of Cranston and Judy White of Harrisburg, Pa., formerly of Coventry; and two grandsons. He was the brother of the late Samuel Weiner. ✓

The funeral services and burial will be private.

WEINER, Louis J. "Sheets"

September 10, 2000. Residence, Cranston. Beloved husband of the late Sarah (Rosen) Weiner. Devoted father of Deborah Weiner of Cranston and Judy White of Harrisburg, PA, formerly of Coventry. Dear brother of the late Samuel Weiner. Loving grandfather of Adam White of Harrisburg, PA, and Joshua White of Baltimore, MD. Funeral Services are private. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to Steere House or Providence College Athletic Dept., 549 River Ave., Providence, RI 02918, Att: Athletic Scholarship. Shiva will be private. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston.