WEINSTEIN, IRWIN M.

PJB 12-20-05

WEINSTEIN, IRWIN M., 66, of El Paso, TX, formerly of California and Cranston, died Friday in El Paso. Beloved husband of Rachel (Sosnowsky) Weinstein. They were married for 36 years.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Herman and Ethel (Konisky) Weinstein. He attended Hope High School, Providence, graduated from Cranston High School and received his BS Degree in Business Administration from Bryant College. During his senior year, Irwin served as President of Sigma Lambda Pi Fraternity. In El Paso, he was a salesman in the wholesale magazine and book distribution industry for many years, retiring in 2001.

After his retirement, he was a consultant for several magazine publishers and volunteered as a reading mentor for children. He was a member of Temple Mount Sinai in El Paso where he taught Sunday School. Irwin was a patron of the arts and enjoyed traveling, reading, eating and participating in community theater.

Devoted father of Hilari Weinstein of Phoenix, AZ and Mitchell Weinstein of Lansing, MI. Dear brother of Wendy Leib of Worcester, MA. and the late Gerald Weinstein. Loving nephew of Cecil Roth of Warwick and Frances Zukor of Ft. Myers, FL. Also survived by several nieces, nephews and cousins.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to Hospice of El Paso, American Cancer Society or American Diabetes Association.
