OBITUARIES

Irwin S. Weinstein

HOUSTON, Texas — Irwin S. Weinstein, 62, of 1405 Chardonney, died at the Memorial Hospital Friday. He was the husband of Sylvia (Shore) Weinstein.

Born in Providence, a son of the late William and Sophia (Zarchen) Weinstein, he resided in the Providence and Cranston area 55 years before moving to Houston two years ago.

He was an Army veteran of World War II, serving in the European Theater of Operations. He was a member of Touro Fraternal Association and a member of Temple Emanu-El.

For many years he had been involved in the plastics industry as an engineer and in Houston as a consultant. Prior to that he was a jewelry designer and manufacturer for William Weinstein and Son.

Besides his wife he leaves three daughters, Marjorie Olerio of Cranston, Deborah Levine of Coral Springs, Fla., and Tamara Serenduke of Houston; a son, Mark Weinstein of Houston; a sister, Isabelle W. Weinstein of Providence; and four grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held today at 1:30 p.m. at Mt. Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

WEINSTEIN, IRWIN S.
