Milton A. Weinstein

WESTFORD, Mass. — Milton Arthur Weinstein, 65, of 1 Carolina Lane, a fighter pilot during World War II who utilized his aviation skills in the field of air traffic control in civilian life, died yesterday morning at New Hampshire Memorial Hospital, Nashua, N.H.

Born in Wrentham, Mass., he was a son of the late David and Miriam (Rosenthal) Weinstein. He attended the University of Maine.

A first lieutenant in the Army Air Forces, Mr. Weinstein served in the European Theater of Operation and flew 96 missions during World War II. He flew two missions a day during the Battle of the Bulge.

Mr. Weinstein was employed by the Federal Aviation Administation at its air traffic control center in Nashua for 22 years until retiring six years ago. Previously, he was employed at the air traffic control center at Logan International Airport, Boston.

Mr. Weinstein also was a pilot in the Massachusetts Air National Guard and was called to duty in France in 1962, during the Berlin Crisis.

He leaves three sons, Douglas Jay and Robert Weinstein, both of Westford, Mass.; a sister, Corinne Lamchick of Cranston; and a granddaughter.

The funeral procession will leave tomorrow at 2 p.m. from Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence, for a graveside service at 2:45 p.m. at Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, Mass.
