MorrisWeintraub

PROVIDENCE - Morris Weintraub, 100, passed away at his home on June 27, 2022. He died the way he lived- in peace and surrounded by loved ones. Earlier that day several of his great grandchildren were beside him whispering-" we love you great grandpa." Morris was born in Providence, RI on May 21, 1922 the son of DavidWeintraub and Leah Melamut Weintraub. He was the eldest of three brothers, surviving the late Albert and HermanWeintraub.

After serving in the military duringWorldWorld II, Morris married FlorenceNadien of Fall River, MA. Morris and Florence raised their children in Providence and were together for 55 years until Florence passed away in 2004. Morris worked in a variety of sales positions until 1977 when he launched a successful business, Retail Recruiters, which he ran for 15 years before retiring at age 70. His retirement was short lived as he then served on the RI Parole Board for the next 3 years, and rounded out his career serving as a member and as chair of the Personnel Appeals Board for another 15 years. Morris served the people of RI until he was 90.

He enjoyed an active social life, attended Temple Beth El in Providence, loved playing Bocce and dining out with friends, worked out with his trainer, and above all thrived spending time with his family, including his 2 children, 3 grandchildren, 7 great grandchildren, and devoted partner of 17 years, Joan Gelch and her family. One month before he passed away, he celebrated the Bat Mitzvah of his great grand-daughter Daphne as well as his 100th birthday at a well attended party in Boston, MA thrown for him by his beloved Joanie.

Morris was a husband, a partner, a father, a grandfather, a great grandfather, pillar of the community, and above all-a mensch.

He is survived by his son and daughter Stuart Weintraub and Partner Sue Adelhardt of San Francisco, CA. and Taos NM, Michael W. Fink and her husband Mike Fink of Providence, RI; his 3 grandchildren Emily Fink Spunt (Nathan) of Brookline, MA, Lily Fink Samin (Nadav) of Silver Spring, MD and Reuben Fink (Laura) of Newton, MA and 7 great grandchildren as well as his partner Joan Gelch and her family.

Relatives and friends are invited to his funeral serviceWednesday, June 29, 2022 at 12:00 PM in the Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Graveside burial will follow in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

Memorial contributions in his honor may be made to Temple Beth El, 70 Orchard Ave., Providence, RI 02906.
