MARTHA ANNE WEISBERG, 52, of Durham, N.C., a phlebotomist, died last Sunday at home.

Born in Providence, a daughter of Alfred and Naida (Deitch) Weisberg, both of Providence, she had lived in Providence and Bradford, Mass., before moving to Durham 18 years ago.

Ms. Weisberg volunteered for an animal rescue organization. She was a member of a nationwide crochet group which donated squares to make afghans for war victims, and at the Durham Chamber of Commerce.

She was a graduate of Lasell College in Auburndale, Mass.

Besides her parents, she leaves a brother, David D. Weisberg of Warwick; a sister, Abby Ribbans of East Greenwich; and two nephews.

The funeral service will be private.
