Dr. Steven Weisblatt

Dr. Steven Weisblatt, born September 4, 1952 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania died peacefully on September 16, 2024 after battling cancer. He leaves behind his son, Samuel Weisblatt, his daughter in law, Laura and his four grandchildren, Yishai, Judah, Yair and Noa. As well as his daughter, Elizabeth Weisblatt and her partner Medra Cruikshank along with his younger siblings, Ricky & Roseann Weisblatt.

After receiving his medical degree at the University of Wisconsin, Steven eventually settled in Rhode Island with his family in 1989. He spent 25+ years dedicated to his practice at St. Joseph's Hospital before moving with his wife and best friend, Judith Gaynor Weisblatt (1950-2019) to Fayetteville, AR to work at the VA. He returned to his hometown of Philadelphia after the passing of his beloved wife. Steven loved reading, history, film, music and pretending to be indifferent to the beloved family dog, Pondy. He was dedicated to his loved ones, always had a helpful bit of advice or story and held a curiosity about life that never dimmed. Steven will be remembered for his integrity, humor and the love for his family.

The family will be holding a private ceremony for the stone revealing and thanks you for your understanding. In lieu of flowers, a donation can be made to the Throat Cancer Foundation or The Survivor Mitzvah Project.

Posted online on September 15, 2025
Published in Providence Journal

Need to place an obituary?

We're here to help.

For loved ones | Funeral directors

Advice and guidance

Step-by-step guide to planning a funeral

Coping with grief when a traditional funeral isn't possible

How to write an obituary

Help | Accessibility | Sitemap | Terms of Service | Subscription Terms & Conditions | Privacy Policy | California Notice at Collection | Our Ethical Principles | Responsible Disclosure | Your Privacy Choices

© 2025 providencejournal.com. All rights reserved.