JOSEPH WEISMAN, 83, of Valencia Drive, Northbrook, Ill., formerly of West Warwick, a former bank teller and retired grocery manager, died Friday at home.

He was the husband of Trudy (Fine) Weisman, and the late Shirley (Shore) Weisman. Born in Providence, a son of the late Louis and Sara (Katz) Weisman, he had lived in Providence for many years before moving to West Warwick, and to Northbrook 19 years ago.

Mr. Weisman had been grocery manager at the former Food Basket, Providence, for 40 years, retiring 20 years ago. After retirement, he worked as a bank teller at Bank One in Northbrook.

He was an Army Air Forces veteran of World War II, serving as a first lieutenant in Europe and lead navigator of 30 daylight bombing runs over Germany.

He attended the University of Rhode Island and Brown University.

Mr. Weisman was a life member of the Touro Fraternal Association, in Cranston, a member of Temple Jeremiah, in Northfield, Ill., and the former Temple Beth Israel, Providence, and a former member of Temple Beth-El, Providence.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Morris Weisman of Boulder, Colo., and Bruce Weisman of Warwick; a daughter, Rena Weisman of West Warwick; two stepdaughters, Linda Levine of Deerfield, Ill., and Carol Babbitt of Wilmette, Ill.; and six grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Harry, Walter and Israel Weisman.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
