STEVEN F. WEISMAN, 57, of Regency Plaza, president of Plainville Stock Company in Plainville, Mass., died yesterday at Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston.

Born in Providence, a son of Joseph A. and Beatrice (Klibanoff) Weisman, he had lived in Westwood and Walpole, Mass., before returning to Rhode Island in 1986.

He had been president of Plainville Stock Company since 1966. The company was founded by his grandfather in 1927 to manufacture jewelry.

Mr. Weisman graduated from Hope High School and received a bachelor's degree in 1966 from Boston University, where he was a member of Alpha Phi Delta.

He had served as a past president of the Providence Jewelers' Club and the Diamond Peacock Jewelers' Club of Boston. He was a board member of the Jewelers Board of Trade and a member of the Boston Jewelers' Club. He was a sports enthusiast, loved music and was an avid reader.

Besides his parents, he leaves one daughter, Meredith Weisman of Norton, Mass.; one son, Max Weisman of Warwick; four brothers, David Elliot Weisman of Washington, D.C., William A. Weisman of Boston, Robert Paul Weisman and Lawrence G. Weisman of Providence; five nieces and two nephews.

The funeral will be held today at 1 p.m. at Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
