ARTHUR I. WEISS, 74, of Canoga Park, Calif., an engineer and a lawyer, died April 25 in Country Villa, North Hills, Calif. He was the husband of Jae Weiss.

Born in Passaic, N.J., a son of Rose F. (Feinglass) Weiss of San Francisco and the late Abraham A. Weiss, he had previously lived in Providence before moving to California.

Mr. Weiss graduated from Brown University with a degree in engineering, and from Boston University Law School. He was associated with his father in the Safety Flag Co. of America before moving to California, where he was an engineer at North American Aviation. He later practiced law in California.

He was a navigator in the Army Air Corps in World War II.

Besides his wife and mother, he leaves a daughter, Janet Weiss, three sons, Jeffrey Weiss, Andrew Weiss and Phillip Weiss, and a stepson, Jason Levine, all of Los Angeles; a sister, Ruth Soforenko of Palo Alto, Calif.; and five grandchildren. He was a brother of the late Judith Cohen and uncle of the late Suzanne Soforenko.
