JonathanWeiss

PROVIDENCE - Jonathan was the loving husband to AleenWeiss of 29 years, devoted son toHoward and Elaine (Spitz) Weiss, and proud father to his daughters Marni and NinaWeiss.

He was a graduate of Classical High School Class of 1980 where he served as class treasurer. He graduated from GeorgetownUniversity School of Business Administration in 1984. Jon received a master's degree at GeorgeWashingtonUniversity's School of Computer Science.

Jon returned to Rhode Island to help run the family businesses. He ran National Business Furniture with his grandfather, Nathan, and father, Howard, where he later served as ExecutiveVice President. He served as ExecutiveVice President of Weiss Properties, Weiss Realty LLC, and Lancaster Realty LLC . He worked alongside his maternal grandfather, Saul Spitz, as a managing broker at SpitzWeiss Realtors and was later joined by his wife, Aleen.

Jon was an active member of The GeorgetownUniversityAlumniAssociation and served on the Board of Directors at Temple Beth-El in Providence, RI. He was a member of the Aurora Civic Association.

Jon had friends from all walks of life and remained close to friends from Camp Bauercrest, Classical High School, and Georgetown University, to name a few. He was known for his witty personality, love and knowledge of Music (especially Classic Rock), for being a devoted Georgetown Hoyas fan, and his loyalty to friends and family.

Jon courageously fought Brain Cancer for a year and a half but sadly succumbed to the disease at the age of 59. He is survived by his wife Aleen, daughtersMarni andNina (fiancéNick Lorusso), sisterMargeryMorris and brother-in-law Steven Morris, niece and nephew, Jaclyn and Tyler Morris.

Services will be held on Thursday, March 17th at 11:30am at Temple Beth-El 70 Orchard Ave Providence RI, 02906, with burial at Swan Point Cemetery immediately after services.

Shiva will be observed at his late residence on Thursday, March 17th from 7-9pm, Friday, March 18th, 2-4pm, Saturday, March 19th from 7-9pm, and Sunday, March 20th from 2-4pm and 7-9pm.

The Weiss Family would like to extend a special thank you for all the care and support fromDoctor Toms and Doctor Kinsella as well as Gabby, Shirley, and Diane from the infusion center.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Jon's memory can be made to Doctor Steven Toms Brain Tumor Research Fund at the Lifespan Cancer Institute, 139 Point Street Providence, RI 02903.

Copyright (c) 2022 Providence Journal, Edition 3/16/2022
Powered by TECNAVIA

 Copyright (c) 2022 Providence Journal, Edition 3/16/2022