PS 10/28/81

WEISS, SAMUEL

Samuel Weiss

Co-founder of National Office Supply, founder of other firm

PROVIDENCE — Samuel Weiss, 80, of 9 Stephen Hopkins Court, founder and president of the New England Stationery Co. and co-founder of National Office Supply, died yesterday at Memorial Hospital. He was the husband of Mrs. Florence (Cohen) Weiss.

For the last five years, he was associated with his son, Herbert, in the operation of Herbert's Office Products on Weybosset Street in Providence and Main Street, Pawtucket.

He was a member of Temple Beth Sholom-Sons of Zion and a former member of its board of directors, a member of the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Touro Fraternal Association and the Providence Hebrew Free Loan.

He was born in Bayonne, N.J., a son of the late Hyman and Rachel (Lazarus) Weiss and lived in Providence for 68 years.

Besides his wife and son, Herbert Weiss of Providence, he is survived by another son, Norton M. Weiss of Warwick; two daughters, Mrs. Carole C. Flink of Newton, Mass., and Mrs. Lois B. Torman of Cranston; two brothers, Morris Weiss of Warwick and Nathan Weiss of Providence; a sister, Mrs. Rose Katz of Los Angeles, and 10 grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held today at 2 p.m. in Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St. Burial wil be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.