IRVING J. WEITZNER, 84, formerly of Cranston, a retired independent jewelry sales representative, died Saturday at Steere House, Providence.

He was the husband of the late Anita (Zimmerman) Weitzner. Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., a son of the late Herman and Minnie (Koch) Weitzner, he had lived in Pawtucket and Cranston for many years.

Mr. Weitzner was a self-employed independent sales representative specializing in jewelry findings and precious stones for 15 years, retiring 8 years ago.

An Army veteran of World War II, he served in the Philippines. He was a member of Temple Beth-El, the Jewish Community Center of Rhode Island, and Crestwood Country Club.

He leaves two sons, Jonathan Weitzner of Cranston and Bruce Weitzner of Rehoboth; a daughter, Gail Galkin of Cranston; a brother, Seymour Weitzner of Delray Beach, Fla.; and five grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Sylvia Seasonwein.

The funeral service will be held today at 2 p.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave. Burial will be in Sons of Israel and David (Beth-El) Cemetery, Providence.
