WEXLER, ANNE (DUBINSKY)

EB 5/23/86

Anne Wexler

PROVIDENCE — Anne Wexler, 83, of the Charlesgate Apartments, 670 North Main St., a bookkeeper for Benny's Auto Stores for 20 years until retiring five years ago, died Wednesday at Kent Nursing Home, Warwick. She was the widow of Abraham Wexler.

She was born in Russia, a daughter of Harry and Rose (Taglin) Dubinsky. She had been a Providence resident more than 60 years, previously living in Boston.

Mrs. Wexler was a member of Hadassah, the Jewish Home for the Aged, Temple Emanu-El and its Sisterhood and Leisure Club, the Tenants Association at Charlesgate and a member of Hamilton House. Mrs. Wexler founded the gift shop at Temple Emanu-El which she operated for many years before being employed at Benny's.

She leaves a daughter, Jeanne Fellman of Cranston; a brother, Joseph Dubin of Los Angeles, Calif, six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The funeral was to be held today at 2 p.m. at Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial was to be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

WEXLER, ANNE