MARTIN WEXLER

Funeral services for Martin Wexler of 156 Fourth Street, who died Jan. 7, were held last Friday at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. He was the proprietor of Arrow Sheet Metal & Roofing Company, a business owned by his family for half a century. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

He was born July 4, 1909, in Providence, a son of the late Max and Sarah (Sentlevitz) Wexler. He was the husband of Mrs. Jean (Weinstein) Wexler.

Mr. Wexler was a member of Temple Beth Sholom and its Men's Club, the Rhode Island Muscular Dystrophy League and the Rhode Island League for Emotionally Disturbed Children.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a son, Stuart G. Wexler, and a daughter, Miss Karen S. Wexler, both at home; a brother, Philip Wexler of Seekonk, and three sisters, Mrs. Frank Abrams of Providence, Mrs. Irving Smith of Waterbury, Conn., and Mrs. Myles Dworkis of Pawtucket.
