WILLIAM WEXLER

Funeral services were held last Sunday for William Wexler, father of Councilman Edmund Wexler, who died on Sunday at the Miriam Hospital, following a long illness.

Born in Russia in 1883, Mr. Wexler had been a resident of this city for nearly forty years. During his early years he was a painting contractor, but later was engaged in the liquor business. For the last fifteen years he had been associated with the Rosenblatt Glass Company.

He was a member of the Providence Hebrew Beneficial Association, the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association, the South Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association, Chesed Shel Emes and the Tiferith Israel Synagogue.

Surviving him, besides Councilman Wexler, are his widow, Mrs. Rose (Prague) Wexler, a son, Benjamin Wexler and a daughter, Mrs. Edith Eisenberg all of this city.

Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.
