WHITE,
Lillian

Mrs. Lillian White Dies After Illness

April 20, 1934.

MRS. LILLIAN WHITE

Funeral services for Mrs. Lillian White who died Thursday night after a short illness, were held Friday morning from her late home, 157 Sumter street. Burial was in the Lincoln Park Cemetery with Rabbi Morris Schussheim officiating.

Mrs. White was born in Russia and came to Providence as a child, living here for 45 years. She was an active member of the Ladies' Union Aid Association, Senior Hadassah, Temple Beth Israel and an officer of the Ladies' Association to the Jewish Home for the Aged.

Besides her husband, Abraham White, she is survived by three sons, Leonard, Arnold, and Frederick of this city; two sisters, Mrs. Dora Deutch of Providence and Mrs. Sarah Parker of Roxbury, Mass.; two brothers, Samuel Cohen of Rochester, Pa., and Abraham Cohen, also her parents Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Cohen.