Bernard Wiatrak

WARWICK — Bernard Wiatrak, 76, of 81 Grand View Drive died yesterday at his home after a long illness.

He was the husband of Lillian (Abramowitz) Wiatrak.

Born in Poland, he was a son of the late Samuel and Sarah (Schwaitzer) Wiatrak. He lived in Warwick for the last 34 years, previously living in East Greenwich and New York City.

Mr. Wiatrak was a graduate of Cooper Union School of Arts and Science in New York, and was a structural engineer at the former Quonset Point Naval Air Station for 30 years, retiring in 1972.

He was a charter member of Temple Beth Am-Beth David and its first building chairman; a founder and first president of the Social Seniors of Warwick; a past president of the advisory board of the Warwick Senior Center, and a member of King Solomon Lodge, F & AM, No. 11. He was a member of the Scottish Rite and the Palestine Shrine and a member of ADAH Chapter, No. 15, of the Eastern Star.

Besides his wife he leaves two daughters, Rosalyn Winterfield of Wallingford, Conn., and Sandra Dunn of Alexandria, Va., and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were to be held at 2 p.m. today at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, Providence, with burial in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
