Dr. Eske Windsberg

PROVIDENCE — Dr. Eske Windsberg, 86, of 768 Elmgrove Ave., formerly surgeon-in-chief at Miriam Hospital for 14 years, died yesterday at home. The late Leona (Samuels) Windsberg was his wife.

Born in Lithuania, a son of the late Samuel and Rachel (Ulamperl) Windsberg, he came to the United States at age five, and lived in New Bedford before settling in Providence 60 years ago.

Dr. Windsberg conducted a private practice in Providence from 1932 to 1963, the year he joined the staff of the Veterans Administration Regional Medical Center. He retired in 1978. He was a graduate of Brown University in 1921, and of the Cornell University Medical School in 1925. He did post-graduate work at the University of Pennsylvania, and in Vienna, Austria.

He leaves a son, Sigmund Windsberg of Providence, and a sister, Anna Retler in Florida.

A funeral service will be held today at noon at Swan Point Cemetery Chapel, Blackstone Boulevard. Burial will be in Swam Point Cemetery.

FEB 11-8-85

WINDSBERG, DR. ESKE