12-14-56

THE PROVIDENCE SUNDAY JOURNAL

OBITUARIES

Leo Wine

NORTH MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — Leo Wine, 92, of 1450 Northeast 172nd St., a retired partner of the Senak Co., Portland, Maine, died yesterday at the Southeast Medical Center. He was the husband of the late Dora (Yaraus) Wine.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Harry and Lena Wine, he lived in Portland for 48 years before moving to Florida two years ago.

Mr. Wine was an Army veteran of World War II and served in France. He was a member of the Jewish War Veterans, Providence, and Portland, and the Ralph D. Caldwell American Legion Post, Portland. He was a member of Temple Beth-El, Portland.

He leaves a daughter, Marjorie Chandler of Boca Raton; a son, Jordan H. Wine of Larchmont, N.Y.; two sisters, Mrs. Bessie Bronski of Providence and Mrs. Mildred Levine of Boston; six grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held today at 2 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

WINE, LEO