WINICOUR, SHIRLEY

PJB 5-15-04

SHIRLEY WINICOUR, 95, of Oak Hill Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, 544 Pleasant St., a retired saleswoman, died yesterday at the center.

She was the wife of the late Benjamin Winicour. Born in Omaha, Neb., a daughter of the late Joseph Liss and the late Annie (Fittler) Albert, she had lived in Providence most of her life before moving to Pawtucket three years ago.

She had been a saleswoman for the former Peerless Co. and the former Boston Store for over 50 years combined before retiring 25 years ago.

Mrs. Winicour was a founding member of Congregation Beth Sholom synagogue and a member of its Sisterhood. She was a member of the former Women's Association of the Jewish Home for the Aged, and a volunteer and participant at the East Side Jewish Community Center.

She was a graduate of the former Commercial High School.

She leaves two sons, Jeffrey Winicour of Pittsburgh and Sheldon Winicour of New York City; a daughter, Selena Winicour Barron of Hartsdale, N.Y.; and four grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
