PROVIDENCE

WINKLER, NORMA (CASTELLUCCI),
87, passed away peacefully on May 28, 2016. She was born in North Providence, the daughter of the late Elizabeth (Bernardo) and John W. Castellucci. She and her brother Sonny were the first twins born in Fatima Hospital.

Graduating from school in Boston, she received an RN degree from the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital and continued her studies in dietetics and nutrition.

The cherished wife of Neville E. Winkler, they were married for 36 years. A partner to their jewelry business, she became the president of Winkler Group and continued to advise for many years.

Norma was a devoted member of Temple Beth-El for over 63 years.

A lover of all things beautiful, she was passionate for the arts, antiquing, travel and music. A former member of the Providence Art Club and board member of Opera Providence, she was a patron to Trinity Repitory, PPAC and the Miriam Hospital.

Norma was a role model to her daughters, grandchildren, and countless others for her grace, humor, courage and zest for life.

She leaves behind her twin brother John F. Castellucci; devoted daughters Heidi Loomis and Traci Maceroni; son in law Bernie Maceroni; grandchildren David, Jenna, Matthew, Amanda, and Joshua; nephews Gregg Castellucci and Ira Weinman; dearest friend Gloria Malloy; and many relatives and friends who were touched by her love and life.

Services will be held Wednesday, June 1st at 11am in the Redwood Chapel in Swan Point Cemetery, 585 Blackstone Blvd, Providence. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to the Alzheimer's Association of RI, 245 Waterman St # 306, Providence, RI 02906 or Hope Hospice & Palliative Care, 1085 N. Main St, Providence, RI 02904. Shiva will be held at the home of Traci and Bernie Maceroni, Wednesday June 1st from 5-7PM. For information and condolences, www.SugarmanSinai.com
