WINOGRAD, Dora

RIHER 3-2263

MRS. LEO WINOGRAD

Funeral services for Mrs. Dora Winograd, 84, of 132 Elton Street, who died March 12 after a week's illness, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

She was the widow of Leo Winograd and the mother of Judge Irving Winograd of Providence district court; Max Winograd, a Providence attorney, and Seymore Winograd, a city businessman.

Also surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Archie Orleck and Mrs. Louis Pomiansky, both of Providence, and Mrs. Max Bezan of Warwick; a sister, Mrs. Rose Ruben of Detroit; 12 grandchildren and a great-grandson.

Mrs. Winograd was born in Austria, a daughter of the late Max and Sarah Broomfield. She had lived in Providence for 65 years.

She was a member of Temple Emanu-El, Congregation Sons of Jacob, Congregation Sons of Zion, the Jewish Home for the Aged, Hadassah and Montefiore. She was one of the founders and incorporators of the Ladies' Hebrew Free Loan Association.