Winograd, Max

Max Winograd

The Providence Journal N-E
Sunday, April 26, 1970

M. Winograc R.I. Attorney, Dies in Ariz.

Max Winograd, 70, of 1 Clarendon Ave., a Providen lawyer and a former preside of the Jewish Home for t Aged, died yesterday in Scott dale, Ariz. He was the husba of Roslyn Winograd.

Mr. Winograd, active in ma Jewish civic organizations w president of the Jewish Hor from 1955 to 1960. He also w president of the Board of Jewi Education of Greate Providence and vice president the General Jewish Committee

Mr. Winograd was a form secretary and president of t Commercial Law League America and president of t Ledgemont Country Club.

In 1934, he was made an aid de-camp of Kentucky Gov. Ru Laffoon, a friend.

He was born in Providence, son of the late Leo and Do (Broomfield) Winograd.

Besides his wife, he is su vived by two daughters, Mi Robert Seegall of Barringt and Mrs. Eugene Cedarbaum Detroit; a brother, Seymou Winograd of Providence, a three sisters, Mrs. Lou Pominsky of Providence a Mrs. Max Bezan and Mr Archie Orleck both of Warwick

Funeral arrangements are i complete.

WINOGRAD, MAX