WINOGRAD,
Roslyn

PS 10/20/1999

ROSLYN WINOGRAD, 86, of 353 Blackstone Blvd., a benefactor of civic organizations, died Monday at Miriam Hospital. She was the wife of the late Max Winograd.

Born in New York City, a daughter of the late Rudolph and Marguerite (Deutsch) Herz, she had lived in New Rochelle, N.Y., before moving to Providence 60 years ago. Mrs. Winograd was a 1934 graduate of Smith College.

She had worked for the Tuberculosis Association of New York, doing psychological assessments for vocational rehabilitation for three years.

She was a member of Temple Beth-El, and a benefactor of Brown University, Rhode Island Hospital and many civic and cultural organizations. She was a former member of the board of directors of Jewish Family Services.

She leaves two daughters, Lois Seegal of Pikesville, Md., and Carol Cederbaum of Westport, Conn.; a sister, Beryl Black of Warwick, Mass., and Sarasota, Fla.; and two grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Jeanne Herz.

The funeral will be held today at 2 p.m. in Temple Beth-El, Orchard Avenue. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
