WINOKER, Sarah

RIHER 5-20-66

MRS. ISRAEL WINOKER

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah (Levenson) Winoker of 273 Potters Avenue, who died April 28, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery. She was the widow of Israel Winoker, who died April 26.

She was born in Russia, a daughter of the late David L. and Amelia (Snyder) Levenson, and had been a resident of Providence for 45 years.

Mrs. Winoker was a member of Congregation Sons of Abraham and was one of the founders and past president of the sisterhood of that congregation. She was past president of the state department of the Jewish War Veterans Auxiliary and past president of the auxiliary of Lt. Leonard Bloom Post 284, J.W.V.

She is survived by two sons, Myron T. Winoker of Warwick and James R. Winoker of Providence; a brother, A.B. Levenson of Providence; one sister, Mrs. Fanny Leven of West Hartford, Conn.; and four grandchildren.
