MILTON J. WINTMAN, 82, of Newman Road, former proprietor of the Providence Newport Distributing Co., died Monday at Miriam Hospital, Providence.

He was the husband of the late Shirley Wintman (Kaufman). They had been married for 47 years. Born in Chelsea, Mass., a son of the late Samuel H. and Katherine (Lodge) Wintman, he had lived in Providence for most of his life before moving to Pawtucket in 1989.

A graduate of Hope High School in Providence, he attended Boston University.

Mr. Wintman had worked with his father at the S.H. Wintman Co. He later renamed the business the Providence Newport Distributing Co., and served as its proprietor for many years, until retiring 15 years ago.

An Army veteran of World War II, he earned two Purple Hearts in the Battle of the Bulge.

Mr. Wintman was a member of Temple Emanu-El, and of the Touro Fraternal Association.

A golf enthusiast, he was a member of Metacomet Country Club and had served on its board of governors.

He leaves a daughter, Susan Levy, and a son, Lewis Wintman, both of Providence; two sisters, Annette Perlman of East Providence and Rita Lipis of Sharon, Mass.; two grandchildren; and a great-granddaughter.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in the Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
