1/13/85

THE PROVIDENCE SUNDAY JOURNAL

WITTES, SAUL A.

Dr. Saul A. Wittes

WOONSOCKET — Dr. Saul A. Wittes, 76, of 92 Oakley Rd. died yesterday at Woonsocket Hospital. He was the husband of Edythe (Stutman) Sadwin-Wittes. He was the husband of the late Naomi (Finkelstein) Wittes.

Born in New York City, a son of the late Benjamin and Eva (Rosenblatt) Wittes, he lived in Woonsocket since 1937.

Dr. Wittes was a general practitioner and internist for 40 years. He graduated from the New York University Medical School in 1933, and interned at Bellevue Hospital, New York City. He was on the staff of Miriam Hospital, St. Joseph Hospital, Fogarty Memorial Hospital and Woonsocket Hospital. He was one of the first physicians to enlist for World War II service in 1942, served four years in the Army, and was discharged with the rank of captain.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Dr. Robert E. Wittes of Bethesda, Md.; a daughter, Mrs. Deborah Wittes-Gordon of Trumbull, Conn.; a stepson, Lawrence Sadwin; a stepdaughter, Darlene Goryl, both of Woonsocket; three sisters, Mrs. Rose Mergler of New York City, Mrs. Irene Ross of Freeport, N.Y., Mrs. Sylvia Shor of Lenox, Mass., and seven grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at B'nai Israel Synagogue, Prospect Street. Burial will be in B'nai Israel Cemetery.