THE EVENING BULLETIN 9-5-85

OBITUARIES

Ida Wittner

PROVIDENCE — Ida Wittner, 73, of Charlesgate South, 20 Randall St., died at home yesterday . She was the widow of Emanuel Wittner.

She was employed for 18 years as a clerk typist at the Pawtucket City Hall Board of Canvassers retiring 11 years ago.

She was a member of the Congregation Ohawe Sholom of Pawtucket and was a past president of its sisterhood. She was a past worthy matron of the Hope Link 76 of the Order of the Golden Chain; a life member of the Pawtucket-Central Falls Hadassah; a member of the Jewish Community Center Golden Agers; the Charlesgate South Tenants Association and the Majestic Senior Guild.

She was born in Central Falls a daughter of the late Abraham and Rachel (Tetelbaum) Fishman and lived in Pawtucket most of her life, moving to Providence eight years ago.

She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Roberta Perlman and Mrs. Sue-Ellen Pompili and a sister, Mrs. Esther Kramer, all of Pawtucket; two brothers, Max Fishman of Pawtucket and Harry Fishman of East Providence and three grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held at 1 p.m. tomorrow at the Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

WITTNER, IDA