OBITUARIES

GEORGE WOLED, 83, of 311 Ward St., the former owner of a frozen-food distributorship, died Saturday at Landmark Medical Center.

He was the husband of the late Edith (Bernstein) Woled. Born in Fall River on Jan. 24, 1919, a son of the late Jacob and Ethel (Levine) Woled, he had lived in Woonsocket since 1948.

He was a graduate of Central High School, in Providence.

Besides having owned his own company, Mr. Woled also had held several sales-management positions in area wholesale food businesses.

An Army veteran of World War II, he served with the 31st Dixie Division in the Pacific.

Mr. Woled had been active member of Congregational B'nai Israel, where he had served as the congregation's vice president, treasurer and head usher. He was a member of the Lodge of B'nai Brith.

He enjoyed musical theater, travel and sports.

He leaves a son, Jeffrey Woled of Sacramento, Calif.; a brother, Philip Woled of Warwick; and two sisters, Bella Foster of Cranston and Ann Lee of Cranberry, N.J.

The funeral will be on Thursday at 10 a.m. at Congregation B'nai Israel, 224 Prospect St. Burial will be in the B'nai Israel Cemetery.
