WOOL, MARILYNNE

Marilynne Wool

Marilynne Graboys Wool, 74, of New London, Conn., died Saturday at her residence from complications of cancer. She was the widow of Judge Louis C. Wool.

Born in Fall River, she was the daughter of Lewis and Rebecca Sobiloff Graboys. She was a New London resident since 1956.

She graduated from Dean Academy and attended St. Lawrence University in Canton, N.Y. She received her law degree from Fordham University in New York in 1948. She studied for an additional year at the Sorbonne in Paris.

She was a member of the Rhode Island, Connecticut and federal bar associations and served as an attorney adviser in the office of the general counsel of the U.S. Department of Agriculture from 1954 to 1955. She was the eighth woman to be admitted to the Rhode Island bar and was listed in the Who's Who in American Women.

She was affiliated with the law offices of Suisman, Shapiro, Wool, Brennan, Gray and Greenberg in New London.

She is survived by one son, Jonathan Wool of Chicago; one daughter, Abby Wool Landon of Portland, Ore., two brothers, George Graboys of Providence, Dr. Thomas Graboys of Brookline and four grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by one grandson.

Arrangements are by the Thomas L. Neilan & Sons Funeral Home, New London, Conn.
