WOOLF, Charles

PJ-B 8-19-1997

CHARLES WOOLF, 71, of Sarasota, Fla., a self-employed automobile salesman, died Aug. 14 at the Emerald Oaks Nursing Home. He was the husband of Sonya Woolf.

Born in Providence, he had lived in Florida since 1991, previously living in Providence.

He was a member of the Emanu-El Temple Brotherhood in Sarasota. Mr. Woolf was a member of the Redwood Lodge 35 A.F. & A.M. in Providence.

Mr. Woolf was an Army veteran of World War II.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Joanne Barrett of Bethesda, Md.; two sons, Barry Woolf of Sarasota, Fla., and Steven Woolf of Bethesda, Md.; two sisters, Rose Steingold and Sadie Woolf, both of Providence, four grandchildren and two step-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held on Aug. 17 in Sarasota.