5-6-1926

died May 6, 26

WOOLF, Henry

HENRY WOOLF LAID AT REST

Superintendent of Jewish Orchanage Was Beloved by All Who Knew Him

More than 1200 persons attended funeral services for Henry Woolf, superintendent of the Jewish Orphanage, held at the institution yesterday morning. In the gathering was noted many not of the Jewish faith who esteemed Mr. Woolf for his many sterling qualities. The floral tributes were beautiful and included designs from several churches and synagogues in the city.

Rabbis Israel Rubenstein and Morris Schussheim delivered the eulogy and the young inmates of the orphanage were present to pay their respects to their benefactor. Interment took place at Boston yesterday afternoon.

The pall bearers were Archibald Silverman, C. Joseph Fox, Philip C. Joslin, Sol S. Bromson, Herman Galkin and Philip V. Marcus.

The honorary bearers were Albert A Cohn, Arthur I. Darman, Daniel Bonig Dr. Isaac Gerber, Bernard M. Godowsky Max L. Grant, Charles Miller, Walter J Sundlun, Louis J. Bachman, Jacob E Edelstein, Jacob Ernstof, Alfred Spear Isaac Woolf, Samuel M. Magid, Isaac Rose, Meyer S. Jaffa, Walter S. Lederer, oseph Finbe ules Goldstein, Alfred Fain W Grossman an