WOOLF, Herbert

PJ 9-9-2000

HERBERT M. "HUBBY" WOOLF, 86, of Royal Palm Beach, Fla., a former business owner, died Sept. 1 in Sunbridge Care & Rehabilitation, in West Palm Beach.

He was the husband of Beatrice "Temmie" (Cohen) Woolf. They were married for 62 years. Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Isaac and Betty Woolf.

He and his brother, Peter, were partners in the former Providence Cornice Co. He later operated a typesetting business.

He was a 1936 graduate of Duke University and served with the Army during World War II. He was an avid golfer.

He was an organizer of the Cranston Jewish Center and the Cranston Temple, where he enjoyed singing in choral groups. In Florida, he was active in B'nai B'rith and reactivated the Royal Beach Chapter.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Betty Donly; two sisters, Ruth Adelson of Providence and Edythe Salzberger of Chevy Chase, Md.; and three grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Peter J. Woolf.