WOOLF, Isaac

OBITUARY

J. H. 3-26-37

ISAAC WOOLF

Funeral services were held last week for Isaac Woolf, who died two days after returning from a winter spent in Florida.

Mr. Woolf was head of the Providence Cornice Company, which he founded forty years ago, president of the Jewish Community Center, one of the founders and diretors of Temple Emanuel, a director of the Jewish Home for Aged and the Jewish Orphanage, one of the original members of the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association, a founder of the Miriam Hospital and the Orms Street Synagogue. He was also prominently identified with the Providence Community Chest from its inception.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Betty Woolf, and the following sons and daughters, Peter, Herbert, Mrs. Samuel Rosen, Mrs. Henry Wiener, Mrs. Joseph Adelson and Mrs. Daniel Polsky, and eight grandchildren.