PJ-B 9/14/88

Selma Yaffe

EAST PROVIDENCE — Selma Yaffe, 84, of 16 Fern Drive, Rumford, an employee of the Peerless Co. for 10 years before retiring in 1978, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. She was the wife of Benjamin Yaffe.

Born in Providence, she was a daughter of the late Samuel and Toba (Heller) Weintraub. A former Providence resident, she had lived in Rumford 35 years.

Mrs. Yaffe was a member of the former Jewish Consumptive Relief Society, now the National Jewish Hospital of Denver, Colo., and was a national delegate to its hospital in Denver. For many years she was a volunteer worker at Miriam Hospital.

Besides her husband, she leaves a daughter, Marilyn Dickens of Warwick; a brother, Erwin Wentraub of Cranston; three grandchilden and four great-grandchildren.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 1 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, Mass.

YAFFE, SELMA