ETHEL KRASSNER YALE, 98, of 1 Butler Ave., a former World War II air-raid warden, and a volunteer, died yesterday at Orchard View Manor.

She was the wife of the late Herman Yale, and the late William E. Krassner. Born in Austria, a daughter of the late Samuel and Miriam (Paget) Stroh, she had lived in Hartford and New Haven, Conn., and West Palm Beach, Fla., before moving to Providence in 2001.

Mrs. Krassner Yale had served as vice president and a former board member of the Women's Auxiliary of the Jewish Home for the Aged in New Haven.

At the age of 90, she volunteered for Meals on Wheels in West Palm Beach, making deliveries on her bicycle.

She had been an air-raid warden during World War II, and had knitted Navy sweaters for the Red Cross.

Mrs. Krassner Yale was a member of the American Cancer Society, the American Heart Association, and Hadassah.

She leaves a son, Leonard S. Krassner of New Haven; a daughter, Myrna K. Rosen of Wakefield; a stepdaughter, Helene Salter of Providence; and five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Anna Baidack, Sarah Jacobson and Louis Stroh.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
