YARNEL, IRWIN A.

PSJ 5-13-07

YARNEL, IRWIN A., 81, of 44 Crowfield Drive, died Friday at Miriam Hospital. He was the beloved husband of Marjorie (Feuer) Yarnel. They were married for 57 years.

Born in Brooklyn, NY, a son of the late Sam and Anne Yarmalowsky, he had lived in NY until moving to Warwick 14 years ago.

He was a corrugated box salesman for over 40 years. Irwin served in the 1285 Combat Engineers Battalion in WW-II. He was a member of the Leisure Club of Temple Emanu-El, the Cranston Senior Guild and Touro Fraternal Association. He will be remembered by those who knew him for his kind heart and corny sense of humor.

Devoted father of Carol E. Yarnel of Warwick.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 11:00 a.m. in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to The Leisure Club, c/o Temple Emanu-El, 99 Taft Ave., Providence, RI 02906. Shiva will be observed at his late residence Tuesday, 2-4 & 7-9 p.m.

5-13-07