YARNEL, MARJORIE

PJB 1-3-12

YARNEL, MARJORIE B., 84, passed away Jan. 1 at Steere House from complications of Alzheimer's. She was the loving wife of the late Irwin Yarnel to whom she was married for 57 years until his death in 2007.

Born in Manhattan, New York, daughter of the late Jack and Sarah Fauer, Marjorie was a kindergarten teacher in Syosset, NY, until her retirement in 1993 when she moved to Rhode Island. She was a past president of The Leisure Club of Temple Emanu-El and served on the board of the Cranston Senior Guild for many years. Her passions included traveling, reading, gardening and cooking.

She leaves behind her devoted daughter, Carol Yarnel, of Warwick. She is also survived by her brother, Dr. Neil Feüer, and his wife, Rochelle, and her nephew and niece. The family wishes to thank the professional staff of The Seasons and Steere House for the loving, compassionate care given to Marjorie over the last four years.

Funeral services and Shiva will be private. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Steere House Rehab/Nursing Center, Activities Dept., 100 Borden St., Providence, RI 02903. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston.
