YELLIN, SCOTT

Warren

PJ 9-9-2004

SCOTT YELLIN, 45, of 20 Kathleen Drive, a teacher and business owner, died Thursday at home.

He was the husband of Debra (Schwartz) Yellin. Born in Boston, a son of Leonard and Geraldine (Ross) Yellin of Marblehead, Mass., he moved to Warren in 1985, previously living in Marblehead.

He received his bachelor's degree from Boston University and his master's at Farleigh Dickinson University in Madison, N.J., both in biology. He taught at Bryant College in the department of science and technology in 1995 and 1996 and was owner of Aqua Dimension Co. in Warren.

He was past president of Pin Feathers of Norton, Mass., and senior research assistant in the department of surgery at Rhode Island Hospital and Brown University Medical School from 1984 to 1988.

He was a member of the American Humane Society, the American Museum of Natural History, the National Audubon Society, the New England Aquarium, Sigma Xi, the World Wildlife Fund, and many other organizations.

He co-authored scores of scientific journal articles and was a published poet.

Besides his wife and parents, he leaves a son, Shane Yellin, and a daughter, Karlie Yellin, both of Warren; a brother, Eric Yellin of Swampscott, Mass.; and a sister, Andrea Firestone of Marblehead.

A memorial service will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. in Temple Habonim, Barrington.
