YOUNG,
Leonard

R I H*E R 8-16-63

LEONARD YOUNG

Leonard Young, 47, of 515 N. Alta Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif., formerly of Woonsocket and Providence, died Aug. 7 in Los Angeles, after having been rushed to the hospital the preceding Sunday following a heart attack.

Mr. Young was the owner of Scotty's Men's Store in Inglewood, Calif. for the past 13 years, and the past president of the Downtown Inglewood Retail Merchant's Association. He was a charter member of the Civitan Club, a Mason, member of both Westwood and Inglewood Shrine Clubs and Upsilon Lambda Phi fraternity.

He is survived by his wife, the former Roslyn Rice of Providence; two sons, Bruce and Stephen Young; his mother, Mrs. Sadie Young; and two sisters, Mrs. Melvin Powers and Mrs. Jon Herman, both of Los Angeles, Calif.