Samuel Young

PROVIDENCE — Samuel Young, 80, of 678 Elmgrove Ave., founder and past president of Young Bros. Mattress Co. for 50 years, died yesterday in Miriam Hospital after a brief illness. He was the husband of Betty (Wainshalbaum) Young.

Mr. Young was also treasurer of Lewis-Williams Furniture Corp. in East Providence for the past five and one-half-years. He was a charter member of Temple Emanu-El, a board member for the Jewish Home for the Aged, a member of Touro Fraternal Association and had been honored by the New England Bedding Association for his contributions to the industry.

He was born in Lithuania, July 22, 1894, a son of the late Abraham and Pearl Young. He was a resident of Providence for 60 years.

Besides his wife, he is survived by one son, Paul Young of Cranston; two daughters, Mrs. Marjorie Leif and Mrs. Eleanor Ross, both of Pawtucket, and three grandsons.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., with burial in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
